Instructions for Application for Zoning Board of Appeals Variance

Zoning Enforcement Office
Town of Hague
PO Box 509
Hague, NY 12836
(518) 543-6161

General Information

An applications for variance is required whenever the proposed project would be in non-compliance with respect to the requirements contained in § 160-20 to § 160-32 of the Hague Zone Code. These requirements pertain to lot size, yard dimensions and building size. These requirements are summarized in the attached table. A variance request will also be needed when the intended use is not one which may be approved by the Zoning Enforcement Officer or the Planning Board.

In determining whether to grant the requested variance, the Zoning Board of Appeals Board must address issues identified in this application. Therefore the applicant is advised to provide the information requested (additional sheets may be used).

Applicants are encouraged to visit the Zoning Enforcement Officer to discuss the proposed project prior to submitting applications. This will permit the applicant to understand the specific information required and the procedures to be followed.

Instructions

1. This application must be completely filled in by typewriter or ink and submitted to the above address with the appropriate fee ($200.00). Checks should be made out to Town of Hague.

Considerations for Variance Determinations:

Additional sheets may be included

Complete information for either Area Variance or Use Variance (not both).

Area Variances: Benefit to the applicant must be weighed against the detriment to the health, safety and welfare of the neighborhood or community

- a. Will an undesirable change be produced in the character of the neighborhood or to the detriment of nearby properties?

- b. Can the benefit sought by the applicant be achieved by some method feasible to the applicant other than an area variance?

- c. Is the requested variance substantial?

- d. Will the proposed variance have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or district?

- e. Is the alleged difficulty self-created?
Yes

Use Variance: Applicable zoning regulations must have caused an unnecessary hardship to the applicant? Applicant must show that for permitted uses:

- a) Can the applicant realize a reasonable return without a variance (financial evidence is required)?

- b) Is the alleged hardship unique and does it apply to a substantial portion of the neighborhood or district?

- c) Will the requested use variance alter the essential character of the neighborhood?

- d) Is the alleged hardship self created?
